NOTICE OF COMPETITION FOR AWARD OF
Contractual jobs of coordinated and occasional nature

Disclaimer: this is a translation of the selection announcement. Its purpose is to provide information to foreign candidates. It has no legal value. The only official and legally binding source is the original Italian announcement.

THE GENERAL DIRECTOR

Having regard to law 9th May 1989, n. 168, instituting the Ministry of University, Scientific and Technologic Research, and particularly art. 6 par. 1, recognizing the managerial and accounting autonomy of Universities;

Having regard to legislative decree 30th March 2001, n. 165 and particularly art. 7, par. 6 as emended by art. 32 of law decree 4th July 2006, n. 223, converted in law 4th August 2006, n. 248;

Having regard to law 24th December 2007, n. 244 (Budgetary law 2008);

Having regard to the decree of the University’s President 23rd January 2008, n. 166 instituting the Commission for the evaluation of ground for conferring individual assignments to external staff through self-employment work contracts of occasional, coordinated and continuative nature;

Considering that the University’s Center for Teleinfrastructures aims at awarding through public selection for qualifications and/or interviews n. 1 work contract of occasional, coordinated and continuative nature to graduated in Law/Political Science, with a PhD in Law/Political Science, to cover the professional needs of the research on The Common core of European Administrative Law – Erc Grant 694697 PI Prof. G. della Cananea. The scope of the assignment is “Research, data-collection and elaboration of a final report, in English, on the topic: The case-law of British administrative law in the years 1885-1915 – (focus on the United Kingdom) 40 sheets approximately plus database”;

Ascertained that the awarding of this assignment is approved by the above mentioned Commission;

Ascertained that the aforementioned needs cannot be satisfied by the staff of the University;

DECrees

Art. 1 - A public selection is called for the awarding of n. 1 assignment of Contractual jobs of coordinated and occasional nature to be carried out in the interest of the Center for Teleinfrastructures of the University of Rome “Tor Vergata” (hereinafter: the University).

Art. 2 - Activity to be carried out: Research, data-collection and elaboration of a final report, in English, on the topic: The case-law of British administrative law in the years 1885-1915 – (focus on the United Kingdom) 40 sheets approximately plus database.

Art. 3 – Duration of the activity: the contract will last three months from the date of signature by the parties.
Art. 4 - Gross compensation: the gross compensation for the activity provided by Art.2 € 4,203.00.

Art. 5 - Awarding of the contract: the public selection will be carried out through a comparative evaluation of both the application and the curriculum vitae sent by every candidate, as well as on the basis of a an individual interview, with the goal of choosing the candidate whose competence best matches nature of the activity that must be performed.

Art. 6 - Requirements: only candidates with the following requisites are eligible for the job: they must have been awarded a Master degree, or equivalent, either in law or in political science; PhD in Law or Political Science.

Other relevant experiences:
- research activity in the field of administrative law, public law, european and comparative law ;
- perfect knowledge of the UK legal order
- high knowledge of the English language

Pursuant to Article 18, paragraph 1, letters b) and c) of Law 240/2010, they must not have any relationship up to and including the fourth degree, or by marriage with a Professor who belongs to the Center for which the call has been issued, or with the Rector, the Director-General, or a Member of the Board of Governors of the University.

Art. 7 - Submission of the application:
7.1. Candidates who fulfil the requirements set by Art. 6 must send their application, in electronic format, at the following address:
- call_1@coceal-erc.eu
7.2. The application must specify:
- the candidate’s date and place of birth;
- the candidate’s fiscal code number and VAT number, if possible;
- the candidate’s contact data (residential address, telephone number, email);
- the absence of any degree of kinship or affinity according to Art. 6.C).
7.3. A curriculum vitae mentioning the candidate’s previous job experiences and other degrees deemed useful for the evaluation must be attached to the application.
7.4. The application must mention any previous office, with a temporary or self-employment contract, possibly served in whatever body of this University.
7.5. The University’s administration has the right to ask at any time the authentic documents related to any degree or job experience stated. The awarded candidates have to produce an authentic copy or a substitutive declaration of the qualifications declared.

Art. 8 - Deadline to apply: candidates must send their application within 15 (fifteen) days (h. 23.50 Central European Time) from the date of publication of this announcement on the University website.

Art. 9 - Examining Commission: A Commission, appointed by the University’s Director general, will evaluate the applications. The Commission’s decisions will be final.
Art. 10 – Attending the examination: Should the Commission established according to Art. 9 decide that either a written examination or an interview is necessary, candidates will be asked to convene by email or telephone call within max 30 (thirty) days from the deadline set out under Art. 7.1.

Art. 11 – Results of the evaluation: Candidates will be informed by the Commission of the results by email or phone call within 10 (ten) days following the interview.

The General Director

Dott. Giuseppe Colpani